Dear Children,

Daily Update

Well an interesting thing happened on Sunday. Prime Minister Boris said that some children may be able to come back to school if it is safe to do so. This is all very confusing and if I am honest my head is in a bit of a muddle about it. I didn't think we would be back until September so I have loads more work to do to make sure school is safe for you.

It is my job to keep you safe in school, but Mum and Dad's job to keep you safe at home. We have been phoning your parents this morning to see what they think. Whatever your mum or Dad decide they are thinking about you. They love you very much, and even though you may be a pain in the bottom sometimes, they want what is best for you. So whatever your mum or Dad has decided I agree with them, so don't go all sulky or moany on them if they tell you that you are staying at home or coming to school. I will find out!

What I can promise is that I will not have any parties until we are all back in school together and it is safe. Even if you are at High School, we will come back for a party in the evening. I bet you can't wait to see my disco dancing! I have already asked Blake's Dad if he will sing for us and he has agreed!

I will let you know more in a few days. I have lots of work to do today. Oh and Ms Rogers has brought her dog Bella into school so of course I need to snuggle her and give her treats.

Keep being good for your Mums and Dads. I miss you loads and loads.

Much love

Ms Clacy
