Dear Children,

Daily Update

What miserable weather today children! I forgot my new key to school today so had to ring the bell. Nobody answered for about 5 minutes so I look like a drowned rat today! Not a good start to the day.

I have a poorly shoulder too! Nobody in school is giving me any sympathy so I need you to send magical wishes my way to make me better. I think it's all the work I have been doing on the computer which has given me a trapped nerve in my neck. It is very painful and a good excuse not to do any more computer work. I am seeing somebody called a chiropractor, they work on your bones and muscles to make it better. He also helps some of the Aston Villa football players to get better when they have muscle aches. I secretly told him not to make them better so that they get relegated and Bournemouth stay up! He did say that I was being mean and he couldn't do that!

I am going to send you a photo of the paw prints we have put around school. We have measured them so that they are 2 metres apart. This will help you keep your distance. Although, do you know what the cheeky teachers have done? They have put the dinosaur prints facing my office as they think I am an old dinosaur. Cheeky things! Mrs Spanos couldn't stop laughing.

Have a lovely weekend children. I hope the rain stops so that you can go out for a walk. Don't forget to keep your distance from people though.

Love
Ms Clacy
