Dear Children,

Daily Message

I have just worked out that it will be 2 months on Saturday since I last saw some of you. I bet my year 6 children have all grown taller than me, although that isn't difficult because I am pretty short! I do really miss you. Yes, I even miss the excuses you give for not doing your homework. One day when I was at school my home-work flew out of the window and it landed on the roof of the next door building. My teachers didn't believe me when I told them and they made me do it again the meanies!

I must tell you a funny story. My sister is a High School Headteacher in Yorkshire. She has a school dog called Steevie Woof Woof. He is my doggie nephew and is so cute. It was his birthday yesterday so the children made him a doggy birthday cake out of dog food and sang him 'Happy Birthday'. He scoffed his cake down and then went missing for an hour. Guess where they found him? He had sneaked into the staffroom and was surrounded by empty biscuit wrappers. He had eaten 5 packets of biscuits and all the staff's lunches! My sister thought it was really funny but the staff didn't!

I would like to wish all of our lovely Muslim children a Happy Eid for tomorrow. I know that it is difficult not being able to see all of your families but I know that you will have fantastic parties with beautiful food. Your mums and Dads are keeping you safe. All of our Mums and Dads at Old Church are keeping our beautiful children safe.

Talking of coming back to school, Prime Minister Boris will announce in Half Term whether some children can come back to school. He will only do this when he thinks it is safe for you to come back. I have had to do some very long pieces of work to show what we are doing too. This has to be checked by a boss at the Local Authority. They will then tell us if we can open or not. So really I do not know when you are coming back. I would love you all back but we need to make sure that nasty virus is kept out of Old Church. As soon as I know I will text your mums and Dads

Have a lovely day.
Love
Ms Clacy
