Dear Children

I hope that you are all OK. I just need to let you know that I am really missing you a lot! This is a very strange situation isn't it? Please try not to worry but by making you stay at home with your Mums and Dads we are trying to keep you safe from this nasty virus that is going around. It is really important that you stay inside or only go out in your own garden. By doing this it will keep you well.

I hope that you are enjoying doing your school work at home in you Pjs. How are your mums and Dads doing at being teachers? Don't give them a hard time because I have told your parents that they can ground you if you play up. They can also give House Points. I am going to ask Mums and Dads how you have been at the end of this. For those children who have been extra fantastic they will be invited to a Massive Party.

I know we have had to cancel a lot of things but we will make it up to you when we are back in school. Year 6, we will make sure that you have your final assembly and party so you won't miss out. Although, I won't make you sit your SATs!

The Bunnies are well and being very naughty. Bertie Bunny stole a carrot from Daddy Bunny today so Daddy Bunny chased him around the pen. Daddy was not a happy bunny! Bruno is currently staying with Ms Scott. He is behaving himself and getting plenty of sleep though. The last time he was at Ms Scotts he ate her husband's headphones!

Well my little sausages keep safe
Lots of Love
Ms Clacy xxxxx

PS I tried to attach a picture of a very angry Daddy Bunny but it wouldn't let me. I will try and learn how to do it for Wednesday.
