Dear Children

Daily Update

I am very tired today as I was carrying boxes and furniture yesterday. The school is looking amazing. My office is already untidy and I was told off by the cleaners for messing it up. Mr Spittle left an empty can of Coke in the new staff room so he was told off too! It was very funny and Mrs Hyde chased us around the school with her mop!

I have made a lovely room for children if they need chill out time or you are feeling sad or want some quiet time to reflect. It is full of my soft cuddly toys and really funky furniture. Actually, it is really a fun room for me to go and chill in but don't tell anybody!

We spent most of the time today trying to find a place for Sylvester the Chinchilla to go. We were all fighting over who should have him in their office. I have compromised and he is just outside the main office where we all can see him.

Have you tried the BBC Bitesize lessons yet? If you haven't, please tell your Mums and Dads about them. They are online and it will really help them teaching you. There is also another website which teachers are just checking out and will let you know about it I am sure.

All the teachers send their love and are really missing you. I think Mr Wilkinson will be wasting away because he has had no cakes made for him whilst you have been off. I know that he is really looking forward to returning so that he can get his daily cake fix! Oh and of course to see you!

Enjoy the sun and make sure you get in a lot of playing time.

Love Ms Clacy
