Dear Children

Daily Update

I hope that you are still being good for your mums and Dad and anybody else who is home schooling you. I have sent them a Marvellous Me award for being a super parent! They thoroughly deserve it.

I know that your teachers are sending you things every day to keep you busy. They hate having to work from home and not see you. Today I am busy setting the budget for school for next year. This is a very important job as I plan how much the teachers have to spend on you. Ms Humpage, Mrs Spanos and Mrs Britain have all been very cheeky saying that they need the most money. I think it is going to be another game of 'Rock, Paper, Scissors' to see who wins!

I am trying very hard to work at home on the dining table but Betty Boo Boo Cat Clacy keeps trying to sit on my lap top. She loves having me at home but she is very naughty. Did you get the photo of Charlie Cat yesterday? He is grounded today as he tried chasing a pigeon yesterday.

I've had an idea. It would be lovely to brighten up Darlaston with Rainbow drawings and paintings in your windows. I have been sent some really nice photos already on the coronaupdates@old-church.walsall.sch.uk website. I have loved looking at those. Please feel free to post them in and I promise to respond.

OK, as you have been so good this week you can tell your Mums and Dads that you can have the weekend off. But remember you are only allowed to stay in your house and garden and to be good for your Mums and Dads.

Much Love Ms Clacy xxxx
