Dear Children

Daily Update

I hope you are all OK and not too sad with the grotty weather outside. I am working from home today and I am looking out of my kitchen window at Betty Boo Boo Cat Clacy sitting in a puddle. She is a really silly pussy cat. Her fur is white so she is going to get very dirty. On the other hand, Charlie Farley has climbed the tree onto the shed and has gone into the neighbour's garden to see his cat friends. He is not very good at socially distancing and I have had to ground him a few times for breaking the rules.

I worked very hard yesterday at getting the new building looking beautiful. I snuck into the classrooms and found paintings and pictures to put into frames. I cannot believe how good you all are at art. Poor Mr Spittle had to keep moving furniture and paintings because I couldn't decide where to put things. Thank goodness he is so patient with me.

I think the school looks beautiful. I will try and do a video tour in the next few days and send it to you. There are currently 9 children in school and I showed them around yesterday and they loved it. Their favourite room was the 'Chill Out' room for children which I am really pleased with as I want that to be a special room for children when they are feeling sad or want some quiet time.

I know that a lot of you really enjoyed the video the teachers made. Ms Bradshaw and I have had another idea. What about sending me a photo of you in lockdown? It could have a message on it to your friends or teachers, or a joke or something silly on a card. I will make it up into a video like I did before. If you are not allowed to have your photo taken, but still want to join in, just hold the message in front of your face, I will of course ban any messages which say 'Bournemouth are rubbish!' Please send photos to coronaupdates@old-church.walsall.sch.uk. Please send these by Monday and I will make them up next week. Make sure that you have permission to send your photo as these will be shared with all of our families.

So get posing ready for your photos to be taken.

Love Ms Clacy
