Dear Children

Daily Update

Welcome back to Home School. I wonder how many of you are still in your PJs doing your school work at home? I hope that you have brushed your teeth and had a wash. I don't mind you working in your PJs but I don't want you being smelly!

I'm having a bit of a crisis today as poor Charlie Farley Cat Clacy has got an eye infection. I am waiting for the vet to telephone so that we can have a video conference call. However, Charlie is sat under the bed refusing to come out. I have tried tempting him with treats and tuna but he is refusing to move. He is a very stubborn cat! I will let you know how he is tomorrow but I think he is going to have to have eye drops. Can you imagine how difficult it is giving eye drops to a naughty cat?

I have loved seeing your rainbow paintings they have really cheered me up. Keep them coming as they make me smile.

I have heard how good a lot of you are being at home for your parents. I am very proud of you. Learning how to make your bed; do the washing up and cooking (but only with your parents there) are just as important as all the school work you are being sent and asked to do.

My plans today are to rewrite the school prospectus. It is a job that I have been putting off for ages but I don't really have an excuse not to do it at the moment.

Keep safe and don't forget to stay in. However, if you are still in your PJs get changed you lazy sausages!

Much Love Ms Clacy xxxx
